

Sister Anne Elizabeth Fiore is a nun with the Monastery of Visitation, in Georgetown, which she joined in 2000 after obtaining a BA in classic languages and an MA in theology from Georgetown University. She teaches Latin, coaches JV Softball and moderates the school's Club Dodgeball. (Yes, Dodgeball!) She also manages the Monastery's vocational outreach. She is known as Visitation's 'blogging nun' having launched Live + Jesus about monastic musings in the tradition of Saint Francis de Sales and Saint Jane de Chantal in 2005. The blog is filled with warmth and humor and marvelous perspective on life as a Visitation sister. I have met Sr. Anne E. She's a lot of fun, and I'm certain she'll have some wonderful thoughts on prayer and why it matters in our lives.

Please note that if you need childcare (yes, we'll have hors d'oeuvres, wine, beer, *and* free childcare!), please RSVP to me at the phone number or email below. We can take children 3 or older.

Check out our page on Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/#!/pages/Blessed-Sacrament-Faith-on-Tap/148991051825451>. You'll find links to our previous talks, and I'll be adding pictures shortly.

We look forward to seeing you there!
